Each and every human form is an incarnated soul with an agenda.

How do I make a life in purpose from that agenda?

How does spirit play into my soul's existence? How do I practice my own perfection? What is my perfection? What does Love have to do with it?

What's the ego's role in purpose? Do I have to achieve self-love before I can live a conscious life?

How do I achieve self-love? How can a job express who I am, even if it's not on my path to purpose?

How do I live without security in order to live happy on purpose? How do I become what I wish?

These questions and more will be answered among the hours of Source Talks

The workshop intensive will present fundamental steps to create a life on purpose
